SELL SMART; STOP SN

Refusing the sale of inhalants in your community.

Heading straight to the decodorant section - that's the third time this week!...

And the law says that you shouldn't sell deodorants and other things to people if you think they'll sniff them.

Because we have to help people who sniff - saying no is the right thing to do.

It helps your cousin and it helps your community

This resource has been developed by Dovetail with funding through the Australian Government's Petrol Sniffing Strategy. insight.qld.edu.au/inhalantsupply

